SAM LONGBAUGH'S WATCH.

A Man who Pulls Dates on It. Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 23, 1893.

Ed. APPEAL—I noticed the enclosed piece in the St. Louis Republic of a recent date, and the claim is made that the watch described was made in 1221. It also said that "in the center of the dial is the British coat of arms in raised brass, consisting of the crown, lion and unicorn."

If this description is correct, then Mr. "J. seph Davis of London," must have gotten his dates mixed, for the unicorn is from the Scottish coat of arms, and was not quartered with the British until James I of England and VI of Scotland came to the throne in 1603; so it must have been after this date that the watch was made, possibly 1621 instead of 1221—just a matter of four hundred years.

Respectfully,
Thos. H. Herndon.

To Divide Utah.

Cheyenne, Wyo., March 1.—Stewart's project to annex Utah to Nevada meets with great favor here, so far as it is refers to the disappearance of Utah as a Territory.

Leading men of Wyoming have long cherished the hope that the eastern part of Utah, including Salt Lake City and Ogden, and ranch, orchard, pasture, farming and mineral land, might become a part of Wyoming.

This claim on behalf of this State will be advanced and pressed when Senator Stewart moves with his scheme. Wyoming and Utah are friendly. Most of the immigration to the western part of this State is from the Territory, and there are several large Mormon settlements in Wyoming.

Mackay's Condition Yesterday.

San Francisco, March 2.—Richard Dey, John Mackay's private secretary, this morning made the following statement to the Associated Press:
